

Days of National Significance

Heritage Day

Heritage Day is celebrated annually on the 24th September as part of an effort to promote the cultural heritage of the Province and country.

International Museums Day

International Museums Day is celebrated as part of efforts to promote the role of museums in society.

International Translation Day

International Translation Day is celebrated annually on the 30th September. The purpose of celebrating this day is to promote a multilingual dispensation in which all the languages are respected and promoted.

International Mother Tongue Day

International Mother Tongue Day is used as a platform to promote pride in languages of various cultural and language communities.

Moshoeshoe Day

The birthdate of the founding father and King of the Basotho nation, King Moshoeshoe is celebrated as the remembrance of the pioneering spirit of this historical figure who was a unifier of nations and a peace maker of note.

Basotho New Year Celebration

Basotho New Year's celebration takes place on the 1st August, the time when the Basotho new-year starts. The celebration is hosted through Basotho Cultural Village, which is the museum that showcases the culture and history of the Basotho people.